Naomi Smith Memorial

Rockbridge Fleece Festival

The Rockbridge Regional Fair and Expo is proud to honor the memory and legacy of our very own Naomi Smith. Mrs. Smith, a long-time resident of Lexington, Virginia passed away March 2019. It is with pleasure that we share this brief history of her lifetime commitment and support of the American agricultural lifestyle. Born in 1932, Naomi grew up on her family's dairy farm in Wyoming, New York. After high school, she studied animal husbandry, earning her degree from Cornell University in 1953. While at Walbridge Farms, located in Millbrook, New York, she met and married Joseph R. Smith an accomplished livestock manager. The pair shared their passion for livestock development and management with a number of well-known Angus organizations, including Walbridge Farm, Ankony's Thorndale Unit, both located in Millbrook, New York, Williams Angus Ranch in Connecticut, and Ayrshire Farm in Upperville, Virginia.

Upon their "retirement" the couple left Ayrshire and purchased a 70-acre farm at the foot of House Mountain, in Lexington, Virginia. While developing their farm, Naomi worked at nearby Lexington Visitor Center, sharing her love for history with those visiting the area. It was there, in Lexington that Naomi decided to embark upon a new farming endeavor: Finnsheep. Having chosen the breed based upon research and its manageable size, she began her flock with four ewes they purchased from Glen Avon Finns in Ohio. From there Naomi and Joe built their flock and traveled the country to shows, festivals and sales becoming advocates for the breed. Naomi and Joe Smith began the Wool Show at our Rockbridge Regional Fair and Expo. Naomi's commitment to the farming community did not stop there.

Dedicated to advancing livestock programs and educating future generations of farmers, Mrs. Smith volunteered her time to support a number of organizations. She served as the Rockbridge Regional Fair and Expo Formal Show Coordinator for two years, was heavily involved with the Rockbridge County Farm Bureau Women's Committee, served on the Mid-States Wool Growers Cooperative - Board of Directors, and was
